PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

Happy Easter! The Second Sunday of Easter is a very important day which closes the solemn octave of the Resurrection, keeping in mind in a special way those who have been reborn among us through Baptism. We continue to praise God for his work in them and us and, as the Church has sung for long centuries at the beginning of this Mass, we, "like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk."

Connected with this celebration is the remembrance of the mercy of God. Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, communicates from his heart the abundance of his mercy along with his tender and simple invitation to trust in Him.

May we always praise God for his tender mercies! May we also give thanks for the diaconal ordination of Juan Fernando Sardi and pray that he will serve joyfully as a deacon and later as a priest.

In Christ,
Fr. Daniel
