PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

"Conduct your affairs with humility; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." The main topic of today's Mass is simple: humility.

In many ways, the importance of humility for a Christian is not a new teaching—we all have heard that more than once. But, interestingly, humility is hard to embrace: how do you grow in humility? And do you know you're more humble?

Humility is rather like bodily health: not something we are thinking about or feeling per se all the time, but the foundation of all other virtues. Humility means living according to the truth, and so, knowing that we live in constant need of grace and salvation, and with the natural desire to share what God has done for us.

The small groups that we want to promote at Holy Name this year, along with the outreach events, are, among other things, opportunities to grow in humility. May we respond joyfully to these invitations!

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
