FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends,

It is a wonderful thing to join every year the first exploration of the first disciples, precisely as we begin the simple path of Ordinary Time. In this way, we try to have the same openness and expectation they had after they heard from John the Baptist that Jesus was the Lamb of God. We also try to see again, to follow Him, to see where He lives. We also, again, want to stay with Him, in the depths of his friendship, sharing our lives, asking our questions, and receiving his love. We, again, want to learn, but not only ideas; rather, we want to learn Jesus, to know Him, to enter more deeply in his communion.

This is what He wants for us today, the simple and concrete invitation of this Mass. And this is the path for the upcoming weeks: to listen, learn, see again that, Him, whom we know. Come and see is what He says to us. Hopefully, many of us will leave the safety of routine, and go, see, and stay with Him again.

With my prayers,

Fr. Daniel
