FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends,

As we continue to resume our daily path with Jesus, after having been called to follow Him in the previous Sundays, today we are invited to renew our amazement at his teaching.

It is important, though, to notice that what makes Jesus' teaching unique is not only what He says, but how. This, however, is not a reference to the human eloquence of his words, which was certainly outstanding, but to the fact that He taught as having authority. He spoke, He commanded, and it happened. So, everyone in the synagogue was astonished, because Jesus brought a new teaching with authority. His word was and is effective; He speaks and does; his words have power.

Jesus' teaching is always new because it is always renewed for us in the Church. The same eternal truth resounds with power for us today, and commands with authority. May we appreciate this unique teaching, and receive with love and obedience the powerful words we hear at Mass.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
