FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear brothers and sisters,

Once again, our yearly journey through salvation history brings us to the desert. There, with Jesus, we are led by the Spirit to spend a time of prayer, penance, and conversion.

The desert is a unique place, different than anything in our normal life. Lent is meant to be different: not just all the same with perhaps a minor difference in our eating habits, but truly a different time, a journey of conversion, of real sacrifice and growth in our need and love for Christ.

Hopefully we all have some Lenten resolutions; and hopefully, they are good means to lead us in a deep way to re-encounter Christ, our need for salvation, the joy of the Paschal mystery.

With my prayers for a fruitful Lent,
Fr. Daniel
