FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends in Christ,

The Lord takes us today to the core of the Gospel. If the main commandment is to love the Lord with our whole heart and our neighbor as ourselves, then this twofold commandment cannot become a reality if we don't love our enemies.

While we don't need to be taught to love our mother or our friends, we do need to hear from the mouth of Jesus these strong words: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. This kind of love is not “natural,” it does not flow spontaneously. It is a command because it is a grace. As St Augustine prayed in a different context, “Give what you command, and command what you want,” so we ask the Lord to give us the charity that we need to live, even and especially when it is hard, even and especially when we need to pray for our enemies, and do good to those who hate us.

With my prayers,
 Fr. Daniel
