A NOTE ON AVOIDING SCAMS

There are scams taking place all of the time. Sadly, these scams often target parishes and the generosity of their members.

(cont.) Our Priests and Parish Staff will never email or text asking you for money, gift cards, or other financial favors. If you receive an email or a text and question its legitimacy, check the email address or phone number of the sender. These messages often come from email addresses or numbers that look correct upon first glance, but aren't from our priests. Never respond to the scam message. Simply delete it or report it as spam.

FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends,

Every beginning of Lent, the journey of the liturgical year takes us first to the desert and then to the mountain. The contrast is evident: from the dry, plain, inhospitable desert we go to the fresh, scenic, breathtaking Mount Tabor. From the harsh battle of the temptations, we come to the rewarding glimpse of divine glory.

A few days into Lent we are given a taste of the hope ahead of us, so that we can all renew our firm commitment to work hard during this holy season; so that we can climb the mountain with Jesus and, after having walked with him in the desert, we can have a share in his resurrection.

May we be open to the gift of the transfiguration, and realize again, how good it is to be here, with Christ, as He shows us his power and glory.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
