Joe was educated in catholic schools in Denver and was a veteran of the USMC from 1952 until 1954. He retired as general manager of the HWE Moore Equipment Company after 30 years.

Joe and his wife, Madonna, were married at St Rose of Lima Parish on Feb. 19, 1955: they had been married for 65 years at the time of her death. They had one son – Stephen, and two grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren and numerous cousins and siblings. Joe was a lector at the 4:30 pm Mass for several years. He was a volunteer at Mount St. Vincent Home for 20 years; donations in his honor may be given to the Home.

FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends in Christ,

Our Lenten journey begins with a movement of the Holy Spirit, who, as He did with Jesus, leads us to the desert of a time marked with prayer, penance, and almsgiving. In the desert of a period that hopefully frees us from unnecessary distractions, we can recognize one aspect of our lives that we don't like: trouble.

Like Israel, in the first reading, we have also suffered and been rescued. With the Psalm we ask, Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble. And in the Gospel we are struck by the mysterious indication that the devil departed from Jesus for a time. Temptations will always come. Trouble will be part of our lives. And that should not surprise us. In fact, redemption means that trouble and temptation have become part of the path to salvation: as we fight the good fight, we realize that struggle can be good, an occasion to love the Lord and remain faithful to Him. May we embrace our spiritual combat as we join Jesus on this journey through the desert of Lent.

With my prayers,

Fr. Daniel
