HOW TO READ THE SPIRITUAL CLASSICS TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 7:00 PM | LIVESTREAM

The Lord in his kindness gives us the saints to be our friends. Yet it can be difficult for us to appreciate their writings. The task in reading a Catholic 'classic' is to find the clear and familiar thoughts of the gospels within the words that the saints spoke to their contemporaries. Join Holy Name's parishioner-at-large Christopher Blum – on Zoom from St. Louis – for an introduction to four spiritual classics from different eras of the Church: St. Athanasius, Life of Antony, Thomas à Kempis, The Imitation of Christ; St. Theresa of Avila, The Book of Her Foundations; and, Karol Wojtyla (St. John Paul II), Sign of Contradiction. ADDED LENTEN CONFESSIONS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 4:30 - 7:30 PM

IN MEMORY OF PATRICIA REINHARDT JULY 8, 1938 - MAR 3, 2025

Patricia (Richter) Reinhardt fell into her Savior's arms after a life's race well run on March 3, 2025. Born the oldest of six children in Kearney, Nebraska, on July 8, 1938, to Lawrence and Violet Richter.

Throughout her life, Pat had a strong love for her Catholic faith. She took her family to many religious functions, and she belonged to numerous Catholic organizations over the years. She had a lifelong quest to learn more about God and become closer to Him. Pat seemed to have a direct line with the Almighty, praying for many people during her life. Through her intercession, many people were healed of their infirmities.

Over the past 18 years, Parkinson's Disease took away more and more of her capabilities. She never complained and continued her dedication to her family, faith, and community throughout her years of physical decline. Pat's family takes comfort in her lifelong faith and love for God and will miss her beautiful smile and sense of humor.

FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends,

We are already halfway through our Lenten journey, and this presents us with a good opportunity to reflect on what has been happening in our lives during these holy days.

The Gospel gives us a simple way to reflect on this. Some people came to Jesus with questions about some people who had suffered under Pilate. The answer given by the Lord was not what they were expecting. Rather than offering explanations about the situation of others, Jesus invited them to think about themselves: But I tell you, unless you repent, you will perish as they did!

How many times do we spend energy and time thinking about others: the work of politicians, situations in the Church, what others do or don't do... To us too, Jesus says: But I tell you, unless you repent, you will perish as they did! May we all spend some time today thinking about our own journey, our path to Christ, and the fruits (or lack thereof) of this holy season, so that we can renew our efforts to be prepared for the upcoming paschal feast.

United in prayer,

Fr. Daniel
