FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear brothers and sisters,

Christ is risen, He is truly risen! Every year we greet each other with these words, because every year we believe again in the event that changed the world two thousand years ago, but still changes our lives today: Christ rises from the dead. He is alive.

What we have lived together in these few days! We have accompanied the Lord as, through the liturgical rites of the Church, He renewed the Paschal Mystery for us: He suffered, died, and rose for us. The participation in the liturgies, in numbers and especially in heart, of so many of you, certainly helped to experience the profound strength of these holy days. We have so much to be grateful for.

When on Palm Sunday we began Holy Week, we asked “why, why all of this?” All of this, his life, death, and resurrection, because He came to save us and to stay with us, always and everywhere. How? In the Eucharist. And this, for the risen presence of our beloved Lord, so close to us, so loving and comforting, we praise Him and we celebrate this Easter.

United in prayer,
Fr. Daniel
