FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear brothers and sisters,

We continue to rejoice in the reality of the resurrection. And yet, we continue to see that many of the problems of life also remain present. Not infrequently do we question God: where are you?

The Lord knows this. He knew this when He came to his confused disciples, startled and terrified, to give them his peace. He asked them: Why are you troubled?

And why do questions arise in your hearts? And so, He asks us: Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts?

But, of course, He comes not to silence our questions or to give us a mere theoretical answer. He comes to be with us. Look, see, touch — He is here. He comes to share his new life with them and so He eats with them.

He comes to share his life with us, always and everywhere. As long as we sincerely open our lives to Him, He will eat with us, fight with us, and fill us with his peace.

In the Risen Christ,
Fr. Daniel
