PARISH UPDATES

WELCOME DEACON CRAIG!

I was born in Spokane, Washington as the younger of two brothers, and lived there until moving to Phoenix, Arizona at the age of 13. When I was 20, I moved to Peru where I spent three years and then moved to São Paulo, Brazil where I lived for 12 years. Along with studying for the priesthood there, I was involved in a very diverse type of apostolate, including preparation for the sacraments, faith formation, mission trips, and coordination of the Christian Life Movement. I worked with people from numerous nationalities, backgrounds, and all social classes. I was ordained to the transitional diaconate on March 19th of 2024, and I now return to the United States as a member of the Archdiocese of Denver.

SACRISTAN MAY FLOWERS FOR MARY

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 9:00 AM

On Saturday, May 3 at 9:00 AM in the St. Agnes Center, we will be hosting a flower arranging/bouquet building activity for the sacristans called “May Flowers for Mary”! The girls can come and enjoy time spent with each other, learn some basic principles of flower arranging, and bring home their own bouquet creations!

BOOK STUDY:

“A SHORT HISTORY OF THE ROMAN MASS”

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 9:00 AM

In his book “A Short History of the Roman Mass,” Fr. Michael Lang discusses the development of the Roman Rite of Mass from its origins in early Christianity until the present day. Fr. Daniel will be guiding a discussion on this new and fascinating short book. ## FROM FR. DANIEL

My dear friends in Christ,

He is risen! He is truly risen! On this wonderful day we don’t only remember the amazing event of the resurrection, but through its liturgical re-enactment fully partake of it. The “explosion of light” (Benedict XVI) of Jesus’ resurrection continues to shine for us: the fire of new life that took hold of that little empty tomb has never stopped to burn, and wants to consume us with hope and love.

When things seem particularly dark in the world, the light of the resurrection reminds us that Jesus has and will overcome death and sin. It is up to us to be truly open to this celebration and to allow it to bring newness to our lives. May this Easter celebration fill us, our parish, and families, with the victory of the risen Christ.

With my heartfelt prayers, and best wishes for a happy Easter,
Fr. Daniel
