FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear brothers and sisters,

Every fourth Sunday of Easter the Risen Christ comes to us as the Good Shepherd. In this way, He wants to show us his power, and share his victory, through the specific experience of being cared for and protected by a Shepherd who is good, beautiful, and strong.

One of the things the Lord insists most upon is that the Good Shepherd knows us and we know Him. St. John says today that the world does not know us because it does not know God. We live as strangers in a world that does not understand and appreciate us because it does not care for God. But we live secure in it, because the Lord knows us and we know Him, because He loves us and we love Him. Therefore, even when things get dark and confusing, we are secure in the certainty of being known and loved, cared for and protected by our Good Shepherd. May this Sunday help us to know and love Him more in return.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
