Dear friends in Christ,

FROM FR. DANIEL

With gratitude, today we receive the good news that our life is meant to be simple. The greatest and first of the commandments is to love God with all our heart, and it comes with a second commandment like it, to love our neighbor as ourselves. The law and the prophets, that is, the whole revelation, everything we know, every commandment and our whole faith depend on these two commandments.

It is healthy to be reminded about the fundamental simplicity of our faith. In a time when we know so much, and receive so much information and opinions about everything, we sometimes make our faith more complicated than it really is. And as interesting it is to know so many things, in the end what really matters is love, to love God with our whole being and our neighbor as ourselves. Charity is the key to holiness and this gift is granted to us again in the Eucharist. May we love with the love we receive.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
