FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends,

The Lord continues to pronounce again for us the Sermon on the Mountain, renewing his call to trustingly embrace the path of the Gospel. The core of all of this is love: the complete acceptance of the person of Jesus as Lord, and therefore, the complete acceptance of his teachings and commands.

In so many ways, the path of Christian life is so simple: it is about an unconditional "yes" to Christ. But, as we know, this simplicity is not always easy, for it demands everything.

May hearing again these words be an occasion for each of us to consider the depths of the simple and demanding call to be disciples of Jesus Christ, and to ask Him to renew in us the strength to follow Him with joy and love.

In Christ,
Fr. Daniel
