FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear brothers and sisters,

Contrary to what most people expected, the prophecy of Zechariah presents a Savior who is meek and humble. Jesus, meek and humble, fulfilled that vision and opened for us the same path.

However, contrary to this revelation, we still often expect a different savior, one who will come with visible power and fix our ills.

But the Lord still comes in humble kindness and the salvation He offers is still rooted in communion with Him. As such, after praising his Father for revealing his secrets to the humble, He renews his loving invitation: come to me, all of you who are burdened, and I will give you rest. Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.

A humble and meek heart is open to receive the great consolation that only the heart of Jesus can offer. May we believe again and ever more deeply in the gift of meekness and humility, so that we can find rest for our souls.

United in prayer,
Fr. Daniel
