FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today the Lord invites us to learn how to encounter Him. In the first reading, God was not in the fire, or the heavy wind, or the earthquake, but in a tiny whispering sound. In the Gospel, Peter was safe as long as he kept his eyes fixed on Jesus; as soon as he looked at the waves and the wind, he began to sink.

Where do we look for God's presence? Where do we find Him? He is found in silence, where He inhabits as in a temple: He is always there, waiting for us to look in the right direction, to pay attention to his whispers.

There are so many things surrounding our prayer practices, and many are great. But, in the end, we simply need to encounter the One who likes to come in silence, with moving reverence for our freedom, with peaceful invitations. May we know where to look for Him and, when the tiny whispers announce his presence, know also to recognize that He is with us.

United in prayer,
Fr. Daniel
