PASTOR’S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

In just a few days we will be celebrating Christmas. We have only hours to prepare our hearts. And the Church, wisely, invites us to think about the experience of those who were expecting the birth of the Lord in a particularly intimate way.

St. Joseph had an important mission and at the same time was called to play a discreet role in the events to unfold. Of the many things we could learn from him, let us mention two that appear in today’s Gospel.

First, Joseph embraces the ideal of silence and recollection that allows us to listen to God’s words. In the Gospel, Joseph noticed what was said to him in a dream, and was able to discern the plan he had to follow. Silence and recollection, strengthened by prayer and adoration, are essential if we want to listen to God.

Second, after Joseph heard God’s word, he immediately acted. Once we know what God is asking from us, there is no need to wait, to keep thinking and discerning. Once we know what God is asking from us, there is only need to respond to Him, joyfully and generously.

May we find the time to pray, in silence and recollection, and do what the Lord wants us to do, to be ready for the birth of Jesus in our hearts.

With my prayers for a blessed and merry Christmas,
Fr. Daniel
