PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

This Advent the Lord is inviting us to deepen our understanding and practice of charity, which is the essence of holiness.

The message of Saint John the Baptist is simple and a strong call to conversion. But the point is not simply to be less imperfect or more efficient. The goal is to receive well what only God can give: Holy Spirit and fire. As "a rising tide lifts all boats," so charity lifts all virtues and brings us closer to God.

Christ came to make charity not only an ideal but a concrete and possible path. May we listen with sincere openness to the invitation to repent and to receive the fire of charity.

In Christ who comes,
 Fr. Daniel
