PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

Today we hear the Beatitudes, which are a description of a true disciple because they are a description of Jesus's own heart.

These few words are the gospel of the gospel, the standard of the new law. In them we find not so much a literal description of what our life should look like (that is, we cannot have anything, we cannot laugh, we cannot eat) but an invitation to think about our hearts and our priorities.

Do we place our trust in material, passing things and experiences, or in God? Blessed are they who hope in the Lord, we have chanted. The Beatitudes are all about this: placing our trust and hope in the Lord. Nothing simpler, nothing more challenging. May we be open to this call.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
