PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

The Lord is calling us. He pronounces again at Mass those effective words that changed the lives of Isaiah, Peter, Andrew, James, and John; those same words that are meant to affect our lives.

Some of us have found our vocation; some, are still open to and looking for it. All of us, no matter our age, experience, or state of life, are called again to "go for God," and be fishers of men.

Sometimes, as we hear these things, we find them a little foreign to our experience, somewhat of an imposition to our already busy lives. But, in reality, this call is such a privilege, and a sign of his personal love for us. God knows us, He trusts in us, He needs us! May we be open to his call.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
