PASTOR’S CORNER

Dear Friends in Christ,

Today we see the very steps of Jesus during his public ministry, and we hear his first words. The first one is one of conversion: repent and believe in the Gospel. The second word is one of vocation: come after me and I will make you fishers of men.

These two first words are not only the first chronological words of a past history, but the first words of our present. The Lord constantly and in many ways says these two words to us every day: convert, follow me. Here we find a synthesis of our life as disciples; here we find the constant ideal of every day: we need to turn toward Jesus and live for Him, changing whatever it is that needs to be changes; we need to follow Him, and do good, announcing his love to the world.

May these two words resound deeply in our hearts, and may we know how to respond to this call, renewed for us as these words were solemnly proclaimed for us at Mass.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
