PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today, with the disciples, we ask the Lord to teach us how to pray. In response, He teaches us again the Our Father, and encourages us to persevere and pray in common.

As we chanted at the beginning of Mass, God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house. We are all united when we come to dwell in the house of God. It is at church, especially in the celebration of the liturgy, that we are constantly taught how to pray. The Church teaches us that the liturgy is the source and summit of our personal prayer life. At the liturgy, especially at Mass, we are inserted into the mystery of true prayer and our personal prayer comes to its fullness in liturgical prayer.

May this Sunday be an occasion to ask the Lord to teach us again how to pray, and to receive this teaching with gratitude.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
