PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

After the great celebrations of Easter tide, we come back to Ordinary Time. Significantly, resuming Ordinary Time takes us first to some important solemnities: the Most Holy Trinity, Corpus Christi, and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It makes sense: how else can we learn to follow Jesus than to dive into the mystery of God himself? That's what Jesus came to reveal, that's what He brought: God. In Christ we can know God.

And so today we rejoice because God is one and three: one substance and three persons. God is love, eternal love; therefore, He is not solitary, but a communion of love. And, though this has momentous consequences for us and our lives, let us try first to simply gaze at the mystery of God: He is One God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. To this God, the only one, the God revealed by Christ, we give honor and glory.

United in prayer,
Fr. Daniel
