SPECIAL NOTE: There will be a Lenten Eucharistic Procession with Archbishop Aquila on Saturday, April 9th at 10:00am.

FROM ARCHBISHOP SAMUEL AQUILA: LET US PRAY TOGETHER the SURRENDER NOVENA † March 17th-25th
(Please pick up the novena at the church entrances)

“Our Archdiocesan Discernment Process will conclude with its culminating experience: our Archdiocesan Discernment Event. Your pastors and I have invited over 500 disciples from every parish and other institutions, apostolates, orders and movements from across the archdiocese to this three-day event from March 25-27 to collectively seek after the Lord’s will and hear his voice for our archdiocese in this new apostolic age.

To prepare for this event, I am inviting you, and all the faithful of the Archdiocese of Denver, to pray the Surrender Novena, beginning on March 17. This novena will conclude on the opening day of our Archdiocesan Discernment Event, the Feast of the Annunciation, which is when we celebrate Mary’s act of surrender that ushered in the most climactic moments of salvation history. On that day, over 2,000 years ago, the entire story of humanity reached a moment of expectant anticipation, waiting for the words of the Virgin Mary: “Let it be done unto me.” Mary listens to God’s plan for salvation and surrenders herself to the will of the Father, showing her willingness to be his servant. Human history is forever changed in her surrender, her “yes” to God’s plan.”

PASTOR’S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

Every year, the Lenten journey takes us from the desert to the mountain. We join Peter, James, and John as they walk with Jesus and witness the dazzling light of his transfiguration. We contemplate the amazing event that took place back then; we renew its reality as we celebrate the Eucharist.

For Mass is a transfiguration: the Lord becomes dazzling white in the consecrated Host, and when the Father tells us, “this is my beloved Son,” we recognize that it is good that we are here, so close to Him.

We have everything we need! In fact, we have more than we need: the abundance of God’s love that comes to us every time we approach the altar, the place of God’s presence. May we be open to this transfiguration so that, as we ask for in today’s ‘Collect,’ “with spiritual sight made pure, we may rejoice to behold your glory.”

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
