PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. If we pay attention to the prayers of this Mass, we notice a particularly joyful tone in them. For example, the collect says: "Gladden us with holy joys, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving." Why, then, do we rejoice so much today?

The antiphons give us the answer. First, the entrance antiphon reminds us that Jesus "will return as you saw him go;" the Ascension makes us think with expectation about Christ's return. And then, in the Communion antiphon we hear Jesus saying, "I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Although the Lord ascended and is not present as He was anymore, He remains with us always and everywhere, and He will come again. In other words, we rejoice today so much because of the assurance of Christ's presence among us.

May we praise the Father today, for, as we pray in the Collect, "the Ascension of Christ is our exaltation."

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
