WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:
This Sunday, May 3rd let us pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, religious and consecrated life. In gratitude let us pray for our priests, our religious sisters and brothers and our deacons for strength from the Holy Spirit for them to remain faithful to their calling.

PASTOR’S CORNER

Dear friends in Christ,

The fourth Sunday of Easter is always dedicated to Jesus, the Good Shepherd. The power of the resurrection comes to us though the gentle and courageous love of our Good Shepherd.

It is important to consider both aspects of the Good Shepherd: He is gentle and brave. Gentle: He knows his sheep by name; He cares for them with kindness and compassion; He prepares a table for us. Brave: He protects us from evil; He is at our side even in the dark valleys of life; He sacrifices his life for us.

It is a beautiful practice to pray today for those entrusted with the care of Christ’s flock. As we think of and praise our Good and Brave Shepherd, let us also pray for priests and bishops, that they may always strive to be like Christ, gentle and brave in their service to their flock.

United in prayer,
Fr. Daniel
