PASTOR’S CORNER

Dear friends in Christ,

This life of ours is limited in more than one way. While we can plan our future, many times unexpected events disrupt our best intentions; sometimes pain and illness surprise and confuse us. In addition, we are limited by time; we cannot add a minute to our days, the time we waste is gone forever; and, although we don’t enjoy the thought of it, we will die.

How do we reconcile our longings for eternal goodness with our limitation? The answer is the resurrection: Christ’s own victory over death, which can become our own victory, if we believe in Him and follow his truth.

Faith in the resurrection has given hope to those who suffer persecution (first reading), endurance to those who experience difficulties (second reading), and meaning to our many unanswered questions (Gospel).

As we see the light of our days diminish and the cold increasing, let us place our confidence in what will last forever, in Christ, who is the resurrection and the life.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
