PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

The final days of the liturgical year are always an invitation to think about the last things and place our hearts on what will never pass. Today as in the past, and while this world exists, the Lord gives us the only absolute certainty and security: while we witness wars, natural disasters, and persecutions, the Lord is in charge; He is the King of the Universe and with Him we will always be safe. Certainly, this is a matter of faith, and our daily human experience often contradicts this certainty at the level of our senses. But God gives us the gift of faith so that we can find our peace in his sweet and absolute power. May we find our safe harbor in the heart of our Redeemer.

In Him,
Fr. Daniel
