YOUNG ADULT SYMPOSIUM:

'The Future' of the Roman Mass with Fr. Daniel
Thursday, September 22nd at 7:00pm

Have you heard the claim that Mass after Vatican II is superior to the old Mass? Or, have you heard that after Vatican II the Mass lost its beauty? What really happened and how can we approach the present and future of liturgical reform? Come for drinks and a conversation about these complicated questions.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today the Lord tells us again the most beautiful words of mercy, the most wonderful short story ever told, the most convincing source of hope. The story of the merciful father and his prodigal son is well known to all. But its depths are infinite.

How is the Lord speaking to us with these words? In what ways have we squandered our inheritance? Have we been selfish and ungrateful? Or, do we have a hard time trusting that God will forgive us, as simply and lovingly as the father forgave the prodigal son?

No matter where we are in our spiritual journey, the depths of God's mercy are open, waiting for us to dive ever more deeply into the sweetness of the Father's heart.

With my prayers,
Fr. Daniel
