PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

The Lord praises prudence, the virtue that puts "right reason in action," according to Saint Thomas. Right reason illumined by faith leads to eternal salvation. The Lord counts on our free use of reason, for He normally acts through our ordinary faculties. Grace does not work alone, but always respects our freedom.

The children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light, says the Lord. May we pray hard, and think hard, so that the Lord can do great things in the world through us, and lead us to his eternal joy.

With my prayers,
 Fr. Daniel
